

were used to carry cargo, whenever they needed it to be, at whatever time. Now I hope you know how Vikings traveled and what boats they used.

How Viking warriors fought

Viking warriors were fierce people and were always prepared for battle. Everyday, Viking warriors could be called to fight, so they always needed to be prepared. If Vikings died they were buried with their prized possessions in their grave. Viking warriors raided, pillaged and plundered so they could get money and power. Now I hope you know the daily life of a Viking warrior.

Interesting facts

Did you know the name Viking means pirate raid in the old Norse language?